“As With Gladness”

LBW 82

vs. 1-4

Greeting and Response: Psalm 100

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

P: Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;

C: serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

P: Know this: The Lord himself is God;

C: he himself has made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

P: Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise;

C: give thanks to him and call upon his name.

P: for the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting;

C: and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Prayer of the “O God, by the leading of a star you revealed your incarnate Son to the nations. Grant that we, following the star of your Word, may after this life see the fullness of your glory; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.” Amen.

First Reading: Genesis 1:1-5

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Second Reading: Romans 6:1-11

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Verse

“Lord to Whom Shall We Go”

Gospel: Mark 11:4-11

And they went away and found a colt tied at a door outside in the street, and they untied it. And some of those standing there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?” And they told them what Jesus had said, and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it. And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!” And he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. And when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

“10,000 Reasons”

Chorus

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; worship His holy name,
Sing like never before,
O my soul; I'll worship Your holy name.

Verse 1

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
it's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
let me be singing when the evening comes.

Chorus

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; worship His holy name,
Sing like never before,
O my soul; I'll worship Your holy name.

Verse 2

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

Chorus

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; worship His holy name,
Sing like never before,
O my soul; I'll worship Your holy name.

Verse 3

And on that day, when my strength is failing,
the end draws near, and my time has come;
still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
ten thousand years, and then forevermore!

Chorus

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; worship His holy name,
Sing like never before,
O my soul; I'll worship Your holy name.
