TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 24, 2021

Prelude

Announcements

Brief Order for Confession and Forgiveness

P: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

P: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

P: Most merciful God,

C: we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

P: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for you, and for his sake God forgives you all your sins. To those who believe in Jesus Christ he gives the power to become the children of God and bestows on them the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

Opening Hymn

“In Christ Alone”

Greeting and Response—Psalm 95:1-7

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

P: Oh come, let us sing to the LORD;

C: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

P: Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;

C: let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

P: For the LORD is a great God,

C: and a great King above all gods.

P: In his hand are the depths of the earth;

C: the heights of the mountains are his also.

P: The sea is his, for he made it,

C: and his hands formed the dry land.

P: Oh come, let us worship and bow down;

C: let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

P: For he is our God,

C: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Prayer of the Day “Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations. Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your name; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.” Amen.

Praise Song

“Lord, I Lift Your Name on High”

Children’s Message

Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:1-6

Therefore, since through God’s mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart. Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways; we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to everyone’s conscience in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel that displays the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For what we preach is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of God’s glory displayed in the face of Christ.

Please stand

Verse

“Lord, To Whom Shall We Go?”

Alleluia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

P: The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 24th chapter

C: Glory to you , O Lord

Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, “Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?” “What things?” he asked. “About Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied. “He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning but didn’t find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus.” He said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?” And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself. As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. But they urged him strongly, “Stay with us, for it is

NEW LOCATION FOR FOOD GIVEAWAY ON OCTOBER 20TH

The Grant County Christian Service Council is again coordinating efforts with Feeding South Dakota on Wednesday, October 27th, to provide another Food Giveaway. Because of the current construction at the Grant County 4-H grounds, the location for the last giveaway for the year needs to be changed. This giveaway will be held on the south edge of Milbank, right off of Hwy 15 at the old Titan Machinery lot at 1104 S Madison St. from 4:00-5:00.

Anyone who feels they are in need is welcome to receive food, as there are no income requirements.

This giveaway will again be held as a drive-through event. The food will already be boxed, and is again coming from Feeding South Dakota. Because of the close proximity to the highway, we are asking that recipients arrive NO EARLIER than 2:30 to avoid traffic concerns. Also, PLEASE do not park in the lot until the volunteers are there at 2:30 to give parking instructions. If you wish to pick up food for your family, you will enter the lot where instructed, and will receive further traffic flow directions from there. In order to minimize contact and comply with CDC guidelines, we will be asking recipients to simply open their trunks or back liftgates of their vehicles once they are in line, and volunteers will place the boxes in the vehicle. PLEASE have a space ready for the box in your vehicle so the traffic flow will not be disrupted by needing additional time to make room for your boxes.

Please also note that we want to keep the line moving as quickly as possible, so we prefer if you are only picking up for your own family. However, we do understand that many people are willing to pick up food for others, but please understand that there will be a 2 family limit per vehicle. You will need to provide your name as well as the name of the other family you are picking up for when you get into the line. Feeding South Dakota also now requires us to collect household information from each family, so recipients will be asked how many people in the family are ages 0-17, 18-59, and 60 and over.

If you are unable to attend, you will need to make arrangements for someone else to pick up your food as we are no longer able to make deliveries after the event.

November Servant Team. Servant teams help usher, greet, furnish and/or serve treats for coffee fellowship, help with weddings if scheduled during the month, and help and/or furnish for funerals that may occur during the month. If every member who is able volunteers for at least one area of service during their month, the work of the church will be easily accomplished throughout the year. Your help is greatly appreciated. Please prayerfully consider being a co-chairman for your Servant Team.
