Greeting and Response

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: I will bless the Lord at all times;

C: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

P: I will glory in the Lord;

C: let the humble hear and rejoice.

P: Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord;

C: let us exalt his name together.

P: I sought the Lord, and he answered me

C: and delivered me out of all my terror.

P: Look upon him and be radiant,

C: and let not your faces be ashamed.

P: I called in my affliction, and the Lord heard me

C: and save me from all my troubles.

P: The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him,

C: and he will deliver them.

Prayer of the Day “Almighty God, you have knit together in one communion and fellowship the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in virtuous and godly living that we may know the unspeakable joys that you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.” Amen.

Praise Song

“Come Now Is the Time to Worship”

First Reading: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.” Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?” I said to him, “Sir, you know.” And he said to me, “These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. “Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Second Reading: 1John 3:1-3

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appear^l we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Verse

“God’s Word is Our Great Heritage”

LBW 239

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. “Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

During the months of November and December the Mission Project for Living Word women's organization is the Mitten Tree. Gloves, mittens and hats for local children and adults may be donated and placed on the Christmas tree in the Fellowship Hall. When the items are actually donated, an ornament will be hung on the tree for each item that is removed.

Eyeglass Ministry - We need your used eyeglasses. Bring Sight and Hope to People Around the World! Please help by donating: Adult-sized glasses, child-sized glasses, non-prescription sunglasses, over-the-counter reading glasses. The donated glasses are sent to some of the poorest countries in the world. Donated eyeglasses can enable an adult to secure a job and support his or her family; a child to succeed in school; a senior to continue to live an independent lifestyle; a mother or father to see their child's face clearly for the first time, and people to hear the Gospel message while they are being fitted for their glasses. Website for more information: www.mostministries.org. There is a basket on the table in the fellowship hall.

December Servant Team will meet on Sunday, November 18th during Coffee Fellowship at 9:00. Servant teams help with ushering, greeting, furnish and/or serve treats for coffee fellowship, help with weddings if scheduled during the month and help and/or furnish for funerals that maybe during the month. If every member, who is able, volunteers for at least one area of service during their month, the work of the church will easily be accomplished throughout the year. Your help is greatly appreciated. Please prayerfully consider being co-chairman for your Servant team.

Living Word Women are planning a St Lucia Breakfast to be held on Saturday, December 8th at 9:30 AM. All women of Living Word are invited to join us for traditional Swedish food, fellowship and a program of inspirational readings and music. This is a good opportunity to take time out of the busyness of the season for some quiet time and to prepare your heart for Christmas.

You may bring guests but please pick up tickets for yourself and any guests you are bringing. The tickets are free and available in the church office or in the Fellowship Hall on Sunday mornings.

If you have large red Swedish candle holders you would like to share for our use that day, please bring them to the church by Sunday, December 2nd. Make sure you put your name on them. We will provide the candles for them.

A few more workers are needed to help decorate on Friday, December 7th as well as in the kitchen the morning of the breakfast and to assist with the clean-up. If you are interested in helping please put your name on the sign-up sheet in the fellowship hall. We will notify you as to the time that you are needed.

Come and celebrate with us the coming of Jesus Christ, our Savior and the Light of the World.

The custom of commemorating all of the martyrs of the church on a single day goes back at least as far as the third century. In modern practice, All Saints' Day commemorates not only all the martyrs, but all those saints who have entered the church militant through baptism and the church triumphant through death.

We give thanks to God for these new saints who were welcomed into the Church Militant through baptism this past year:

Carter Lee Busack
Lennon Rae Ambrose
Bentley Eugene Anderson
Karlie Ann Marie Bakeberg

We give thanks to God for these new saints who passed through the gate of death and entered the Church Triumphant this past year:

Dick Forster
Carlyle Trygstad
Ann Liebe
Lester Schimmel
Pat Johnson
Dean Henson
Marvel Black
